The naturist club North Jutland is an active club which has cooperation with Aalborg camping and Chalet Island which owns and operates Aalborg naturist – camping site. Aalborg camp is divided into two parts, one for nudists with 105 units, which is open from 1st April to 31st Oct, and one for other campers, which is open all year. In both areas there is a modern service building and it is always free to use the facilities. The campsite is not divided in units so feel free find a place and plug your wire into the nearest electric socket. The campsite is beautifully situated to the Limfjord and a lovely marina where it is possible to put the boat in the water from a trailer ramp. There are approx 3 km into the center of Aalborg and there are a busconnection to the center approx 400 m from the camp site.

All are very welcome to stay overnight at the naturist Campsite and participate in the events that might incurred.

Single must presenta valid INF membership card with a stamp of a Federation according Aalborg Camping's rules. In other words: Naturist camp is like an ordinary camp site but of course we naturist experiences

expect naturism/nudity in the square when the weather permits it. Indecent behavior will result in exclusion

The naturist part are divided with a fence so the textile campers not bothering us with their clothes, and the vegetation on the camp site means that there is very good shelters and access from the road is not possible. The camp site has good facilities for all who wants a holiday in quiet surroundings. In the middle of the square there is a communal house with a fridge and a freezer, a sauna, a wilderness bath/hot tub and bonfire. And a short distance to the electricity and water. There are free access to Aalborg hostels facilities, there are 2 computers with broadband connection, and WI-FI is available for those with a laptop. The facilities are next to the reception. This Service is of course free.
