On the same location where 35.000 years ago our ancestors set up their camp, you can now enjoy a perfect naturist holiday. Hidden in the hills of the Dordogne, 20 miles south of the romantic little town of Bergerac, you will find Camping Le Couderc, a family friendly naturist campsite. Open from the first of April till the 15th of October, this three star campsite, managed by Marieke, Nico and Olivier, has a surface of 83 acres, 158 large pitches, 22 chalets and 9 safaritents. Part of the campsite is located in a lovely valley, where you will find a crystal clear spring and two small lakes, making it a fantastic natural playground for the kids. In high season, we offer a wide range of activities for children. Circus lessons, theme days and the famous 'ghost tour' are a great success every year. People who are looking for peace will also like it on Le Couderc as every meadow has its own character. The campsite is known for its typical 'Couderc atmosphere': intimate and convivial with a lot of creativity and music, with the Open Podium and the theme meals as the highlights of the week.
