Little Banana Beach

Lat: 39.149216

Long: 23.392020

Little banana has a small taverna.

The only "official" naturist beach on the island. Located on the north west of the island, it is almost exclusively naturist with only a few more inhibited individuals usually during August.

Take the bus to the end of the island (bus stop 26) and walk up the track beside the drinks kiosk. Follow the track round to the right at the top then drop down to the left after a further 50 metres. The beach at the bottom here is big banana and now, exclusively textile. However, little banana can be reached via a walk round the rocks to the right of big banana (as you face the sea) or by continuing to the right as you approach big banana, up & over the hill.
