So what's BareCamp?

BareCamp is a weeklong naturist event with planned clothes off at 1200hrs on Monday 2nd Sept and clothes back on at 1200hrs the following Monday 9th September. This gives everyone a potential full week of naturism within a lovely, farm setting. The location is Thorney Lakes – a large farm/campsite, near Langport, Somerset. The site is very large, very rural and comes with two well stocked fishing lakes. Away from the main camping area you can enjoy the site completely naked, we just ask that you don't go off site naked.

During the week we have organised various forms of entertainment, activities and outside visits which are also naked if you so wish. Typically, the day starts off with breakfast available from around 0830hrs. We then have craft sessions, talks, coffee and cakes, boules and other such things taking place throughout the day. In the evening we will be having quizzes, live music and most evenings a silent disco. The evening meals will either be a mass takeaway, think £600 Indian takeaway, pizzas or fish and chips cooked on site.

Clothing optional visits have been arranged to a National Trust Garden and East Somerset Steam Railway, which will include a trip on the steam railway. Both are a rare occasion to enjoy two lovely events.

During the week at various times, we will also have Scalextric racing cumulating in the Stig challenge with a prize for the winner, a dog agility contest, drone flying, a walk in the area and airgun shooting. There will also be a 5/10k run with all runners receiving a 'Bare run certificate' and a fishing contest, both on the Saturday. We also are planning for lots of impromptu music by some of the team and hopefully some of 'you' the visitors, if you so wish. All musicians are given an exceptionally warm BareCamp welcome.

On site we have a fully licensed bar 'BARNUDA' with Mike, one of the team, performing head barman duties providing everyone with good, locally produced ales and cider at very reasonable prices. Mikes very popular 'Ginger Donkey' cocktail will again be available (a mix of cider brandy and ginger beer). Shan, also one of the team will also be operating 'BARE BUTIES' a catering facility offering breakfast, sandwiches, cakes and hot drinks throughout the day. We also have a sauna trailer and a gaming tent.

Dogs are welcome and if you wish to be on a quiet pitch just let us know and we will find you a suitable pitch away from the crowds. Off the ground fire pits are allowed and available for hire along with wood and marshmallows for evening get togethers with friends.

The admission price includes ALL the activities taking place with only outside visits to pay for. Bar and food prices are extremely good value and Bare West Events is a non profit making company with all proceeds going into promoting Naturism.
